EXPERIENCE

Freelance Motion Graphics Designer

1/3/2017 - Present

Australia - New Zealand - Fiji - Mexico

Halfway my world trip,

I started freelancing remotely for different clients around the world.

Working with different time zones taught me to anticipate feedback, organize my work and be very flexible. I participated in projects for a sports brand and marketing agency in London, film production companies in Paris, Brussels and Ho Chi Minh with clients like AFC Asian Cup, Bajaj and Printemps.

Lead Motion Graphics Designer

1/5/2018 - 31/12/2018

Bluescooter Designs - Pune, India

This Indian graphic design agency offered me to come work in India.

I was responsible for taking briefings from clients, rewrite, design and animate the content into videos with 2D animations.

I learned how to work with clients and colleagues from different cultural backgrounds with little experience in video production.

Gap year - World trip

1/9/2016 - 31/12/2017

www.matsnmiles.com

As I was travelling through four continents, I wrote a travelblog

Motion Graphics Designer

1/9/2014 - 1/9/2016

Sleak - Strasbourg, France

I learned to work in a small team with freelancers and illustrators against tight deadlines. I mentored interns, gave them feedback and shared my skills.

I helped creating campaigns for clients like Decathlon and Haribo.

Internship Motion Graphics Designer

1/3/2014 - 1/6/2014

Sleak - Strasbourg, France

This leading French video production company taught me about design and animation aspects and to learn to pay attention to details of animations, colors and framing.

WORTH TO MENTION

Virtual Reality Experience

www.bit.ly/HansgroheVR

At Sleak, we had the opportunity to create a virtual reality experience for Hansgrohe, a global sanitary fittings manufacturer, which was showcased in DIY shops all over France

Glyde - Mockumentary

www.bit.ly/MNMGlyde

The graduation project I participated in went viral and ended up in an American tv show and in Belgian newspapers.
